Basketball Clinics to Start Soon!

Reformation will have 6-week basketball clinics for the Reformation boys and girls in grades 5-8. The basketball clinics will be starting the week of April 11 and ending week of May 17. Mrs. Sarah Rodrigues will be running the clinic with the 5-8 grade girls on Thursdays from 3:30-4:30pm. She would like some help running the girls' basketball clinic so if you are interested in helping, please contact Mrs. Rodrigues at rodrigues@refsd.org or stop by her office.

The 5-8 grade boys' basketball clinics will be led by Mr. Dave Holladay and Mr. Mike Ash. The clinic times will vary each week depending on Mr. Holladay's work schedule so the times are TBD. We will get that information out to you prior to Easter vacation. If you would like to lead a basketball clinic for the students younger than 5th grade, let me know. We might be able to have basketball clinics for the younger grades as well if there are parents to lead them. If you have any questions, please contact Mr. Ash at ashm@refsd.org.

Classroom Update from Ms. Bianca and Mrs. Lamp's Classroom

Spring has sprung with lots of new fun and adventures in 3k! February brought us lessons about the amazing universe God created. We learned about stars, planets, and all of the incredible things we have in our very own solar system. Then our Post Office lessons came just in time for Valentines Day, where we learned even more about God's love for us and our families.

March brought us so many exciting new things! We learned about composting, gardening, and fun on a farm! Oh yes, and don't call us late for any celebrations, as we had a super duper all things green St Patrick's Day Party. We ate green veggies, pasta, and of course green desserts YUMMY!

However, the most important lesson of all, is what we learned about the wonderful victory Jesus won for each one of us. Jesus took all of the yucky things that we have done, or will do wrong, and placed them on himself. He died on the cross to wash away our sins. The good news doesn't end there. In three days he rose from the dead and won the victory over death, the devil, and our sins. Jesus stood in our place so that when we die we don't have to be afraid. Through Jesus we have new life in him in heaven. What a great Easter gift we are given!

Coming Soon! Reformation Summer Camp June 7–August 20.
